

Insert wall mount brackets into the inner aluminum channel. Two brackets should be used for each graphic rail, and they should be positioned so the bracket screws into the wall below the top bar and above the bottom bar. In this way, the bracket will be hidden by the graphic once it's installed.

